

KINESIOLOGY

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY
College of Education

50

Students participate in faculty-led research each semester

130+

Students per semester who present at the Bruya-Wood Undergraduate Research Conference

PRE-HEALTH

Students go on to advanced education in Kinesiology, Physical Therapy, Occupational Therapy, Medicine, Physician Assistant

Computer-based Anatomy Studies

STATE-OF-THE-ART RESEARCH LABS

In biomechanics, exercise physiology, exercise psychology, and motor control

500+

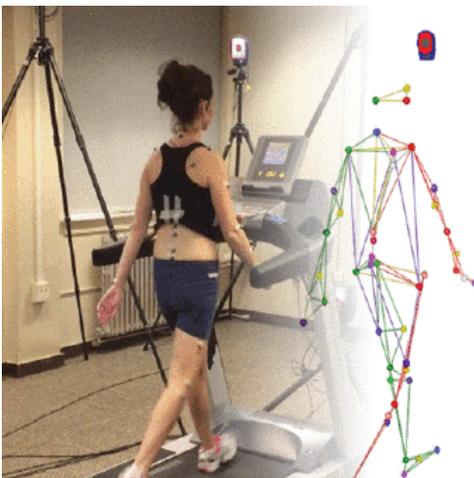

Hours of hands-on professional experience

Students have opportunities to present at national conferences and publish in scientific journals

CAREERS

- Athletic Administration
- Biomechanist
- Cardiac Rehabilitation Specialist
- Chiropractor
- Coaching Youth Sport or College
- Director of Youth Camps/ Sport Programs
- Disease Specific Agencies
- Epidemiologist – Physical Activity
- Ergonomist
- Exercise Physiologist
- Exercise Program Director
- Exercise Test Consultant Technologist
- Fitness and Exercise Instructor
- Health Club Director
- Health Educator
- Massage Therapist
- Medical Doctor
- National Sport/active living Organization
- Occupational Therapist
- Orthotist/Prosthetist
- Parks & Recreation Departments
- Personal Trainer
- Physical Therapist
- Physician Assistant
- Professor of Kinesiology
- Public Health Agencies
- Recreational Therapist
- Registered Nurse
- Respiration Therapist
- Special Population - Wellness Instructor
- Sport Psychologist for Performance Enhancement
- Sports Equipment Designer
- Sports Information Director
- Sports Officiating
- Strength and Conditioning Coach
- YMCA Director

Opportunity for engagement with the student-led KINESIOLOGY CLUB

WASHINGTON STATE UNIVERSITY
Kinesiology

For more info about the Kinesiology program, visit:
education.wsu.edu/undergradprograms/kinesiology/